

My dear children, also today I'm inviting you to stand face to face before My Son Jesus and don't be afraid to live totally the Love that He wants to donate you.

With all His tenderness of Love, He purifies your hearts to make you the witnesses of His Love.

Open your hearts to Him because, without your "Yes", He can't operate in you. And you children, who have your hearts wounded, you don't manage to forgive!

Today, more than ever, I need true Apostles who may testify the wonders, that He's accomplishing through My coming, and you, dear children, who received this call, I'm inviting you to be the witnesses of what God is accomplishing in you, through the signs that you receive every day.

My son, look how many hearts are here and need to be loved and comforted and you, My son, be the joy and peace that Heaven gives you, because, through you, they may receive that peace and that serenity of Heaven.

My children, pray, pray, pray, pray, in order to have the grace of Joy.

Because, through the Holy Scriptures, that are proclaimed every day, you may learn to live

His Word.

Because, through Him, He may change your hearts!

I'm with you and close to you! I raise My eyes to Heaven, so that the Consoler Spirit may guide and bless you.

My children don't miss the path that God traced for you! I love you and I desire to bring you all to My Son Jesus.

Live for eternity and live for the things of Heaven, all the rest will be donated to you.

Pray for the Pastors and for the Holy Father.

I'm blessing you with My motherly blessing and thanks for responding to My call.
