During the Apparition

“Dear children, also today I’m coming among you so that you may learn to pray because, without prayer, you can’t understand My presence among you.

My children, Jesus sends Me among you so that you may not feel alone and I wish that all of you learn to fall in love with My Son Jesus more and more.

Whenever you invoke and ask for His help, He’s ready to accept all your needs. When you pray, My children, try to immerse yourselves totally in prayer, so that you may not become distracted. How many of you are distracted in prayer and they are unable to immerse themselves totally in it and are disturbed by so many thoughts!

I’m saying to you all, My children: the salvation of souls is obtained by giving yourselves totally to My Son Jesus. My children, how many of you ask for graces, ask for help! Help will be given to you, by living the Word of God. He’s your nourishment! Let yourselves be molded by the Comforter and feed on His teachings!

My children, if you don’t pray every day, fasting and renouncing everything that doesn’t allow you to transform your life into joy, you won’t succeed in having peace in your hearts.

Pray for peace, pray for My intentions! You, My children, can’t pray only for yourselves, but it’s necessary to know how to pray for others, because, before you ask, My Son already knows everything about you.

You, My children, who wish peace, I’m exhorting you to speak less and pray more, so that the Holy Spirit may work in you and become action. There’s no need for many words, and My Son taught you to die to selves.

I’m saying to you: first of all, seek the Kingdom of Heavens, everything else will be given to you in addition. And to you, who are living this time of grace, My Son sends Me to console you, because He doesn’t want anyone to be lost.

It’s a time of conversion, so that you may be ready to say your ‘yes’. I’m saying to you, love of My love: pray, pray for this world without peace! To you, who have received this gift, I’m inviting you to help Me, so that all evil will end and, by your ‘Yes’, Satan won’t have power over you.

Pray, pray, pray because, by giving love, you be the hope of tomorrow, and don’t let yourselves be confused by this world full of pitfalls, making you believe that there's no more hope. But I'm saying to you: all this will end and My Immaculate Heart will triumph. Thank you for having responded to My call."
